

Psalm 133-34

How good and pleasant shall it be

Paraphrase by P.B. Irvine

TALLIS' CANON

G Em C D G

How good and plea - sant shall it be when I pray for you to cast off ills, that God bles - ses us of A - bram's line, the
Be - hold and bless the Lord, all you who

Am G C D G Am G

sib - lings dwell in u - ni - ty. Let ho - ly oil a - not a drop of oil be spilled, to bring you health, and fruit of bro - thers in one brood, that each of us may stand in God's true dwel - ling place, lift up your hands and

Am D G Am Em Am D G

noint your head and sick - ness yield to health in - stead.
peace and joy, like dew that falls on Zi - on's hills.
re - cog - nize hu - ma - ni - ty's true bro - ther - hood.
bless the Lord, whose pres - cense fills all time and space.